

Bay or its tributaries within the limits of Worcester County with any seine or net of any description containing meshes less than one and one-half inches square, except only during the months of July, August, September and October, when this section shall not apply to fishing for fat backs and crocus.

181. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of the preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace or upon indictment and conviction in the Circuit Court for said county, shall suffer forfeiture of all boats, seines and other instruments used in violation of the preceding section, and shall be fined the sum of ten dollars ($10) for each and every offense, with all costs of prosecution, and in default of payment thereof, upon conviction, he shall be committed to jail for not less than ten nor more than sixty days.

182. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Circuit Court upon payment to him of a fee of one hundred dollars, and, upon application of a non-resident of said county (not being a taxpayer therein upon property standing in his own name of the assessed value of one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more), to issue a license to such applicant authorizing him to fish for one year with seines and nets in the waters of Sinepuxent Bay and its tributaries within said county as a resident of said county is permitted to do.

183. It shall not be lawful for any persons other than citizens or actual residents of Maryland to rake or catch oysters, clams or terrapins, or plant oysters, in the waters of Sinepuxent Bay, or any of the tributaries thereof, included in the boundaries of Worcester County.

188. It shall be the duty of the Sheriff, State Game Warden or any Deputy Game Warden, or any Constable of said county, with or without warrant, to arrest any person and to seize and take into custody any canoe, boat or vessel, whenever and wherever such person, canoe, boat or vessel shall be found violating or being used in violating any of the provisions of this subtitle of this Article, and bring the offender before some Justice of the Peace or Judge of the Circuit Court for said county.

199. Any person violating any of the provisions of the three preceding sections shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace of Worcester County, or in the Circuit Court of said county, shall be fined not less than five or more than ten dollars, and be imprisoned for a term not exceeding thirty days, or until said fine and all costs are paid.

200. Upon information given upon oath to any Justice of the Peace of said county of any violation of any of the provi-
